.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to declaring the proceedings Rec.No.APWF/424/92, dated 2-12-93 and the subsequent proceedings dated 6-5-93 in R.O.C No. APWF/262/1993, of the respondent as illegal, arbitrary, discriminatory and consequently declare that the petitioner is entitled to receive the death benefit of Late. M.R Narasinga Rao as nominee-applicant.

Counsel for the Petitioner : MR.G. VIDYA KUMAR

Counsel for the Respondent : None Appeared

The Court made the following:

O R D E R:

The decision of the Andhra Pradesh Advocates Welfare Fund Committee, which is included in this writ petition, is a self-explanatory. The committee had rejected the review application filed by the petitioner on the ground that Sri M.R. Narsinga Rao, Advocate, Chodavaram was not admitted as a member of the fund earlier to 22-06-1991, when his application was taken up by the committee for its consideration.

It is an admitted fact that the petitioner's father Sri M.R. Narsinga Rao died on 14-04-1991 even before his application came up for consideration before the Committee. In the circumstances, the petitioner is not entitled to any relief.

The writ petition fails and the same shall accordingly stand dismissed without any order as to costs.
